FIRST GAME OF SERIES

his clout to left. It bumped against the fence and would have kept on going for some time but for the obstruction.

Second Inning
Brooklyn—Wheat beat out an infield hit. Cutshaw hit into a double play, Janvrin to Scott to Hoblitzel. Morey walked. Olson fanned, swinging hard at the third. No runs, one hit, no error. Wheat's single in this inning was lucky. Hoblitzel became tangled up in attempting to handle it and could not get back to first, but the chance was worth giving the batter the hit.

Boston—Lewis walked. Gardner was safe at first, and Lewis at second when Meyers failed to handle Gardner's bunt in front of the plate. Gardner was given a hit. Scott sacrificed. Meyers to Cutshaw, putting Lewis on third and Gardner on second. Cady was walked purposely, filling the bags. Shore fanned. He swung. Hooper flew to Meyers. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third Inning
Brooklyn—Meyers out. Shore to Hoblitzel. The "Chief" made only a feeble effort. Marquard fanned. The Rube was given a big hand when he came to the plate. Meyers singled through short. Daubert fanned. No runs, one hit, no error. It was Daubert's second strike out of the game, and for the second time he swung hard at the three pitched balls. Shore had Daubert's number.

Boston—Janvrin fanned, and when Meyers dropped the third strike was tossed out to Daubert. Walker fanned, called. The third strike was called on him and he watched it float by. Hoblitzel tripled to deep right. Hoblitzel scored when Lewis shot a double to left. Lewis hit the first ball pitched and the crowd went wild. Lewis caught off second. Meyers to Olson. One run, two hits, no error.

Fourth Inning
Brooklyn—Stengel singled down left field foul line on first ball pitched. Wheat tripled to right, scoring Stengel. Cutshaw flew to Hooper, and Wheat was doubled at the plate on Hooper's great throw to Cady when Wheat attempted to score after the catch. Mowrey out, Janvrin to Hoblitzel. One run, two hits, no error. Hooper made a remarkable catch and threw in, doubling Wheat and Cutshaw. He barely caught the ball, but quickly regained his feet and made a terrific and perfect throw to the plate as Wheat dashed in.

Boston—Gardner fanned. Scott flew to Wheat. Cady walked, his second pass of the game. Shore fouled out to Meyers. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning
Brooklyn—Olsen out, Gardner to Hoblitzel. Meyers tripled to deep center. Walker lost the ball in the sun. Walker made a quick recovery and tried to head the "chief" off at third, but was too deep in the field. Marquard out, Janvrin to Hoblitzel, on the first ball pitched. Meyers was held at third. Meyers flew to Scott. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Boston—Hooper doubled to center. Janvrin sacrificed, Mowrey to Cutshaw—Hooper on third. Walker singled to left, scoring Hooper. Carigan took exception to Marquard's motions in his attempts to catch Walker off first. He also claimed balks, but was overruled by Umpire Connolly. Hoblitzel out, Daubert, unassisted. Walker stopped at second. Walker was touched on the line by Mowrey on Lewis' rap to third. One run, two hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning
Brooklyn—Daubert out, Gardner to Hoblitzel. Stengel fanned. Wheat out, Janvrin to Hoblitzel. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Gardner safe on first on Olsen's error. Gardner's roller stopped between Olsen's legs. Scott forced Gardner at second. Mowrey to Cutshaw. Scott took second on passed ball. Cady walked for the third time. Shore popped to Daubert. Both runners held safe. Hooper flew to Olsen. No runs, no hits, one error.

Seventh Inning
Brooklyn—Cutshaw out, Janvrin to Hoblitzel. Mowrey singled to right. Olsen hit into a double play, Gardner to Janvrin to Hoblitzel. No runs, one hit, no errors. It was a lightning-like double play. It hardly seemed possible that Janvrin could get his throw away, but he made it by inches, Hoblitzel taking it with one hand high and to the left.

Boston—Janvrin doubled to left. Walker was safe on first on Olsen's second error. Janvrin took third. Janvrin scored, and Walker was safe at second when Cutshaw dropped Hoblitzel's liner. Hoblitzel safe at first. Lewis sacrificed, Daubert to Cutshaw, putting Walker on third and "Hobby" on second. Walker scored and "Hobby" took third on Gardner's rap to Cutshaw. Gardner safe on first. Scott fled to Stengel. Hoblitzel scored after the catch. Gardner held at first. Cady out, Cutshaw to Daubert. Three runs, one hit, two errors.

Eighth Inning
Brooklyn—Meyers out, Scott to Hoblitzel. Johnston, batting for Marquard. Johnston singled to right. Meyers hit into a double play, Scott to Janvrin to Hoblitzel. No runs, one hit, no errors. This play was probably one of the most wonderful of any world's series. The ball struck Scott in the chest, but bounced squarely into Janvrin's hands.

Boston—Pfeffer now pitching for Brooklyn. Shore flew to Wheat. Hooper walked. Janvrin singled to right, Hooper scoring when Stengel threw wild to third to head Hooper off. Janvrin then took second. Stengel got an error. Walker walked. Hoblitzel flew to Wheat. Runner held. Lewis forced Walker. Olsen to Cutshaw. One run, one hit, one error.

Ninth Inning
Brooklyn—Daubert walked. Stengel singled to right, Daubert stopping at second. Wheat forced Daubert. Shore to Gardner. Cutshaw hit by pitched ball, filling the bases. Stengel and Wheat scored on Janvrin's error when he muffed an easy roller from Mowrey's bat. Cutshaw stopped at second. Olsen singled to short, again filling the bases. It was an infield rap which Scott could not handle. "Big Chief" Meyers fouled out to Hoblitzel. Merkle, batting for Pfeffer, walked, forcing in Cutshaw. With the bases still full, Mays relieved Shore in the box for Boston. Thomas relieved Cady behind the bat. Mowrey scored on Meyers' infield hit to Janvrin. Olsen went to third and Merkle to second. Daubert out, Scott to Hoblitzel. Four runs, three hits, one error.

The Father—That young fellow who has been calling here lately is a very fine young man. He has the right ring about him. The Daughter (eagerly)—Has he? Have you seen it? Is it a diamond?
